Today's Working Agreements

from:

- Grace
 - To yourself
 - To our students
 - To your colleagues
- Ask
 - Got a question? Drop it into the chat! Ask a friend. Use the backchannel.
- Try
 - Try something new. It may go well... it may not the first time.
 - "Failure is success in progress." -Albert Einstein
- Support
 - Share in the chat and support one another. Offer a kind word or share a success story.
- Be Present
 - We're all in this together.

Our Goals for this session...

- Explore Universal Design for Learning and its connection to inclusive classrooms
- Link lesson concepts and activities to deeper learning and building independence
- Expand thoughts on the good work you're ALREADY doing
- Gasp, laugh, and nod your head
- Tilt your head as you consider a new thought or perspective

REUP Student Stories

Meet Selena!

I'm not too sure I would be back at Valley without my Success Coach. It is so nice to have the support of someone knowledgeable of the struggles that come with college.

Selena is working toward her dream of becoming a nurse at KVCC.

SELENA'S JOURNEY

Selena always knew college was important, so she enrolled at KVCC.

However, her degree path wasn't clear. "[I was] lost about the whole process [...] I wasn't proactive about getting help or asking questions."

HER DECISION TO RETURN

Once connected with a ReUp Success Coach, Selena started making a plan to get her degree. She is motivated to have a better life with her son.

"It has become apparent that if I want to get ahead in life, I need a degree."

HER CHALLENGES

Not only did Selena get involved in a toxic relationship, but she got pregnant. Attending classes became difficult, so she stopped out.

She then started working as a housekeeper to make ends meet.

HOW THINGS HAVE CHANGED

Working with her Success Coach & returning to school has given her hope & motivation.

"I am definitely in a better place in life mentally. I'm very focused on me, my son, & the future."

AFFECTIVE NETWORKS: THE WHY OF LEARNING

Engagement

For purposeful, motivated learners, stimulate interest and motivation for learning.

RECOGNITION NETWORKS: THE WHAT OF LEARNING

Representation

For resourceful, knowledgeable learners, present information and content in different ways.

STRATEGIC NETWORKS: THE HOW OF LEARNING

Action & Expression

For strategic, goal-directed learners, differentiate the ways that students can express what they know.

Evaluating Work for UDL

Providing for Multiple Means of Engagement	Present	NOT Present	Please explain HOW the aspect is present or not present in the activity or lesson. If it is NOT present, what are some ideas for including it?
Recruiting Interest
Optimize Individual Choice and Autonomy		X	Everybody is doing the same activity and producing very similar work. There are many ways to allow for more autonomy. Students could record themselves on their phones and then type what they said. Students could choose to watch a short video and write about what that family is doing rather than writing about their own lives (this is especially kind for our students who have no family in this country; it makes the material less triggering).

Evaluating Work for UDL

Self-Regulation
Develop self-assessment and reflection		X	After correcting their errors, there is no reflection on the types of errors made or why they made certain choices in their paragraphs about what they included or didn't include. Instead of having students read their paragraphs to each other in groups, which doesn't relate to the objective, they could do a self-reflection on the writing process and their errors.

Lesson Planning

Engagement is not “one size fits all.” How are you providing multiple ways to engage all learners? Click on Multiple Means of Engagement to learn more about providing options for learners and explain how you are including this below:

7.1

- Students choose various online resources to research information
- Students create chromosomes for their baby in the Mix & Match Activity

7.2

- Students discuss their inherited traits from their parents and grandparents, which are personal contextualized to each of their lives
- Activities involve active participation, exploration, and experimentation
- Activities are culturally & socially relevant, as they reflect students' ethnic/cultural, racial and/or gender group

7.3

- Students are encouraged to work individually, with a partner, and to participate in whole group discussions throughout the lesson

Providing for Multiple Means of Representation Provide Options for:	Present	NOT Present	Please explain HOW the aspect is present or not present in the activity or lesson. If it is NOT present, what are some ideas for including it?
Language and Symbols
Illustrate through multimedia		X	There is not multimedia present in this lesson. This could easily be fixed by integrating videos or audio into the presentation of information. It would make class more engaging than starting with discussion questions on a topic that has not yet been covered.

Lesson Planning

Learners vary in the way that they react to and grasp information that is presented to them. Click on Multiple Means of Representation to explore ways that you can provide options for representing content and explain how you are including this below:

1. Flexible Content:

- Written text
- Videos with close captioning
- Online search/websites
- Google Drive/Docs

2. Language & Symbols

- Vocabulary Log
- Multiple Media- illustrations, photos, videos, text

3. Comprehension

- Activate background knowledge: vocabulary review, prior biology lessons, ratios

Strategic & Goal-Directed

Evaluating Work for UDL

Providing for Multiple Means of Action and Expression	Present	NOT Present	Please explain HOW the aspect is present or not present in the activity or lesson. If it is NOT present, what are some ideas for including it?
Physical Action
Vary the methods for response and navigation		X	Students were not given any options in how they responded in writing. Everyone was completing their work with pen and paper. A simple fix would be offering students the option to use voice to text software to reduce physical strain on one's hands or to type the paragraph on the computer.
Optimize access to tools and assistive technologies		X	None of this was explicitly stated in the lesson plan. In a face-to-face classroom, it would be nice to have laminated sheets with common ALT-key codes (ex: ALT+C for copy) posted next to each computer. In an online class, this would be an important first week mini-lesson and a resource to have available in whatever the teacher uses for a shared file management system with students.

Evaluating Work for UDL

Executive Functions
Facilitate managing information and resources	X		For what the lesson consists of as it is, there is a brainstorming chart and a grammar checklist that are meant to provide some structure. In a revamped lesson, there would be much more opportunity for graphic organizers, checklists, etc. Even providing students options to use digital checklists, online concept mapping, and other tools would allow them the chance to choose what works best for them while still feeling like there is some organization.

Lesson Plans

Learners best express what they know in different ways. Click on Multiple Means of Action & Expression to explore ways to offer options for learners and explain how you are doing this below: Google Drive – Materials

- Add captioning to YouTube videos
- Add captioning to Blackboard Collaborate Recordings
- Students may choose to listen to vocabulary pronunciations & definitions in Quizlet in addition to reading the material
